

Consulting the dice

1. Use two six-sided dice
2. Hold the dice in your bare hand at least 6" above the table. It is okay to rub or blow on the dice for luck
3. Roll (don't drop) the dice.
4. Both dice must end up flat on the table. If they are cocked (leaning on something) or stacked (on top of each other), you must roll again.
5. Add up the pips (dots) on the dice.
6. Consult the guide for your fortune.

The Dragon's Oracle

2 - Wings of the Wind

In the near future, you will come across a unique opportunity. Stick around people you know well and you will be elevated to a higher position. Allow yourself to be helped.

3 - Fangs of Fire

You will be betrayed by someone you don't trust. An enemy turned friend will turn enemy again. Stay paranoid, you will not expect it. Trust no one, not even yourself. The betrayal will ruin you, but only if you allow it to take full effect. Break the ties before they can be cut. Burn the bridges before they are crossed.

4 - Talons of Iron

You will run into hardship soon. But you must stay strong and power through. Hold out until the hardship is over, you will not regret it. Good fortune awaits you if you make it. But don't give up, don't give out. Your hardship will turn to peril. If you fail the challenges that await you, you will find yourself challenged for life.

5 - The Jade Dragon

Tonight, your dream will be a vision into your future. It will be hazy, but you must take everything into account. The smallest turtle to the largest explosion will all represent something in real life. You are on your own to interpret the visions. But if you see a Jade Dragon in your dreams, in your visions, then do not worry about the rest. This means good fortunes for you that day, and you are not responsible for doing anything to make it happen. The Jade Dragon is the highest form of luck.

6 - Piercing Gaze

Keep a careful watch, pay attention to every detail. Big change is coming soon, but you must look closely to see it. The smallest difference will be the biggest opportunity. Do not let anything go unnoticed, keep a watchful eye out. To miss this chance will be the worst mistake of your life.

7 - Smoke and Flame

The near future of your life will become confusing. But do not be deterred, everything will become clear soon. All that happens, happens for a reason. It is okay to doubt during this time, but keep at least a little faith in the Dragon's Oracle. Always go with your first instinct, as it is the Oracle telling you how to proceed. Never doubt yourself when making decisions. You know what's best because the Oracle knows what's best. All will be well soon afterwards.

8 - Venomous Bite

Soon, you will have the opportunity to betray a close friend. Should you choose to take that opportunity, you will gain much physical fortune, but lose much spiritual fortune. Should you choose to ignore it, the opposite will come true. The chance will be blatantly obvious, you will not be able to miss it. If you do miss it, nothing will happen and your life path will not be altered.

9 - The King Dragon

In your near future, people will be extremely open to your ideas. Take this opportunity to explore your wildest ideas, nobody will be opposing you. You will be able to do anything you want, for a short period of time.

10 - Thunderous Wings

Should you continue on this path, you will find yourself traveling to a place you have never been to before. You must be careful, as you may find great misfortune in this place. However, you will gain an experience that only few can speak for. This will allow you to gain a foothold in a position you have long desired.

11 - Misty Sanctuary

Your current location is the safest place you can be. Soon, an event will occur that will be a tragedy to all affected by it. Only people in your location will be safe. If possible, take your loved ones to this place and stay here until the event is over. Do this as fast as possible, as while the event is happening you will not know what the event is. When it is over, it will be clear that it is over, and it will be clear what you have avoided. Your loved ones will be grateful. This event will never happen again, so you will never have to worry about it once it is over. This is not the path to great fortune, but rather the ladder to stay above great misfortune.

12 - The Dragon of Eternity

Soon, you will have the chance to change your life. What this chance is and what the choices are will be clear. What will be invisible to you is what the change will be. The change will come much later in your life, at a point in time where you will have undoubtedly forgotten about this decision that you made. But, it will be big change nonetheless, and you will achieve much fortune and experience from it. Betrayal or Death will not play a part in this choice, but desires and surprise will. If you miss this opportunity, you will gain a second chance to trigger the same change in 3 years time. Do not forget about this between now and then, otherwise your life path will not be altered.
